

Shall there be a constitutional convention to propose amendments to the Constitution?

Under Section 2 of Article XVIII of the Constitution, the Legislature may submit to the voters the question, "Shall there be a constitutional convention to propose amendments to the Constitution?" The majority of both houses passed House Bill 18-5, "an act to present to the voters in the Commonwealth in the next general election the question: 'Shall there be a constitutional convention to propose amendments to the Constitution?'" Thus, the question is now being presented to the voters.
